Connecticut General Statutes

Effective October 1, 2003 (Public Act 03-177), the maximum extension period that may be granted for an application involving a public hearing may not exceed 65-days in accordance with §8-7d. This includes Subdivisions, Re-subdivisions, Special Permits, Zoning Board of Appeals applications, Zoning Map changes, Zoning Regulation changes, and Town Plan Amendments. As a public hearing is always required in Westport for Site Plans, the State Statute is also applicable to Site Plans.
